

Reading Comprehension

Read the below paragraph very carefully and then answer the following questions

Raju lived in a small village. The old playground was broken and covered in weeds. The swings didn't work, and the slide was rusty. Children couldn't play there, and everyone was sad.

Raju had an idea. "Let's fix the playground!" he said. His friends helped clean weeds and plant flowers. Parents painted the slide and repaired swings.

Grandpa Mohan planted mango and guava trees. Soon, the playground was beautiful. Flowers bloomed, trees gave shade, and children played happily. Everyone thanked Raju for making it a fun place again.
