

Reading Comprehension

Read the below paragraph very carefully and then answer the following questions

Last Sunday, my family and I went on a picnic to a beautiful farm on the outskirts of the city. The place was surrounded by lush green fields, tall trees, and a small duck pond.

We spread our picnic mat under a big mango tree and unpacked delicious homemade sandwiches, fruits, and fresh juice. The cool breeze and chirping birds made the atmosphere even more refreshing.

After lunch, we played badminton and ran around the open fields. The kids had fun jumping on the trampoline, sliding down the slides, and playing other games. As the sun began to set, we packed up our things and sang songs on our way back home.

It was a day filled with laughter, fun, and beautiful memories!
