How to Use "Has" and "Have"

Rules:
Use "has" with singular subjects (he, she, it).
Example: She has a red balloon.

Use "have" with plural subjects (I, you, we, they).
Example: They have a big house.

"You" always takes "have", whether singular or plural.
Example: You have a lovely smile.

Using the above rules, fill in the blanks using the appropriate word(has/have)
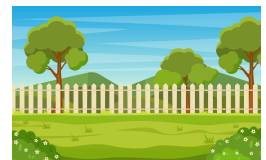

1. She ＿＿ a pet cat. (has/have)

2. I ＿＿ a blue bicycle. (has/have)

3. He ＿＿ a new school bag. (has/have)

4. We ＿＿ a fun trip planned. (has/have)

5. My mother ＿＿ a beautiful garden. (has/have)

6. They ＿＿ a big playground in their school. (has/have)

7. The dog ＿＿ a long tail. (has/have)

8. You ＿＿ a great collection of books. (has/have)

9. It ＿＿ a bright yellow color. (has/have)

10. The children ＿＿ many toys to play with. (has/have)